

Girl Scouts Celebrate Faith!

“The motivating force in Girl Scouting is spiritual.”

—Preamble, Constitution of Girl Scouts of the USA

Faith is at the heart of Girl Scouting, and it's been integral to the Girl Scout tradition since its founding in 1912. As part of the Girl Scout Promise, Girl Scouts have pledged to “serve God” and to “help people at all times.”

Today we lift up these shared values, as a long standing tradition where girls explore the powerful connections between their faith and Girl Scouting.

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place. Through Girl Scouts, girls have endless opportunities to discover and nurture their interests, connect with others, and take action to better the world around them, all while strengthening their connection to their faith.

When girls are deeply rooted in their faith, they grow into compassionate leaders who inspire positive change in their communities. Girl Scouts across the world are finding ways to share their love and compassion to make the world a better place.

We are grateful to everyone joining us today, supporting Girl Scouts, and fostering a place where girls can grow in leadership and faith together. Learn more about Girl Scouts at www.gsgcf.org.

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the
Girl Scout Law.
