

Nominated Single Slate Profiles for Election

MEMBERS-AT-LARGE, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Two-year term – January 18, 2024 – Annual Meeting 2026

Karin Bleyer is completing a two-year term as member-at-large and was elected for a one-year term at the Annual Meeting in January 2021. She is an Executive Director with JPMorgan and is a banking executive for over 35 years at two large financial institutions in New York and Florida with experience ranging from Cyber Technology Controls, Business Control, and Project & Process Management. Karin has significant leadership and management experience from servicing clients, to managing the risks, controls and governance for the firms and working with large global teams and clients. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from SUNY Albany and a Master of Business Administration in Finance from Pace University. Karin is originally from New York where she raised three children and volunteered for many PTA activities and local charities. Karin moved to the Florida in 2017 and as a lead for the Women in Technology programs at JPMorgan, Karin sees how important it is to cultivate girls at a young age for success and provide the guidance, mentorship, and resources to achieve success as they grow to adults. Karin is driven to give back in her work and to the community to help others, especially women, build strength and courage to succeed and achieve their goals.

Maegan Cardillo is completing a two-year term as member-at-large and was elected for a one-year term at the Annual Meeting in January 2021. She is an Executive Director in JPMorgan's Merchant Services business and serves as the Head of Client Experience and Commercialization for the Small and Medium Business (SMB) organization. In this role, she leads a global organization accountable for driving product adoption, enabling product delivery, and improving the client experience of our SMB Payments Products. Maegan joined JPMorgan Chase in 2004 and has held leadership roles across multiple lines of business including Asset & Wealth Management, Consumer & Community Banking, and now in the Wholesale Payments business in the Corporate & Investment Bank. She has held various program management, product management and operations leadership roles both domestically and abroad. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Delaware. She enjoys spending her weekends outdoors and on the water with her husband and two young children. Maegan relocated from Pennsylvania to Florida with the bank in 2016, and she is excited and inspired to work with GSGCF as an organization whose mission and values align with her passion – instilling confidence and promoting leadership in young girls.

Dr. Bonny Eads Dery is completing a two-year term as a member-at-large and was elected for a one-year term at the Annual Meeting in January 2021. She is a Girl Scout alumna and Lifetime member. She served as a troop leader and previously served on the Girl Scouts of Gulf Coast Florida board of directors, board development committee, and capital campaign. Bonny is a Doctor of Optometry with Drs.' Dery, Eads, Barton & Witten in Naples. She is a member of the American Optometric Association, the Florida Optometric Association, and the Southwest Florida Optometric Association. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Optometry. Her community awards include Collier County Outstanding Partner in Education and Migrant Health Care Provider of the Year. Bonny champions Girl Scouts of Gulfcoast Florida at all times, connecting resources and cultivating relationships to support Girl Scouting.

Kathryn Mlsna served on the board of the Girl Scouts of Prairie Wind and of the realigned Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago and Northwest Indiana, before joining the council's management C-suite. Other former board service includes trustee of Northwestern University, president of the Northwestern Alumni Association, president of mentoring organization The Council of One Hundred, president of the Promotion Marketing Association, board member of two social service organizations, and officer of the Association of Corporate Counsel/Chicago. She currently serves on the boards of the Northwestern Asian and Asian American Alumni Association and the Northwestern Club of Greater Naples (FL). Kathryn has been featured in books about business leadership, and is the author of many organizational governance articles, and co-author of several book chapters addressing product safety, promotion marketing, and women's leadership. She was a longtime member of senior management of the Global Legal Department of McDonald's Corporation, and a member of the C-suite of a professional dental association. Kathryn earned her B.A. and J.D. at Northwestern University. She resides in Naples with her husband, and they are the proud parents of three grown children and seven young grandchildren, two of whom are third generation Girl Scouts.

Jennifer Reid relocated to Naples in 2019, after founding and serving as co-chair of Lyme Connection, a Connecticut-based non-profit, and working with the Ridgefield Health Department as a prevention educator. Prior to working in health education, Jennifer held positions as Senior Account Supervisor for Cox Pippin Communications, PR and Advertising Assistant Director for the Dallas Market Center, and Communications Coordinator for EDS (Dallas, Texas). She holds a B.S. degree in Community Health from Western Connecticut State University. Jennifer presently volunteers at Valerie's House and serves on the board for Cypress Cove Landkeepers in Naples. A Girl Scout alumna, Jennifer spent over a decade in Connecticut leading Girl Scout troops and volunteering as a camp counselor while raising her three daughters, where she was recognized with several council adult awards. Jennifer's granddaughter is a third generation Girl Scout Daisy.

Mackenzie "Kenzie" Shockey is a Girl Scout Senior and has been an active member for 10 years. She is working on her Gold Award project and earned the Silver and Bronze awards. As a CIT (counselor-in-training), she volunteers at camp and other programs to teach skills and provide experience opportunities for sister Girl Scouts. Kenzie served as a delegate at the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women in New York City, where she gave a speech to over 400 people from all over the world in addition to participating in dynamic sessions. Recently, Kenzie presented with CEO Mary Anne Servian to successfully represent the council during applicant presentations resulting in the award of a highly competitive grant for the amphitheater at Camp Honi Hanta. Kenzie is a dedicated community volunteer and helping to make a difference in the world. Her goal is to attend West Point, then the Uniformed Services University School of Medicine to become a doctor in the United States Army to help the people who risk their lives for our country. Kenzie is developing exemplary and inspirational leadership and public speaking skills to be the best applicant possible to achieve her goals.