New Adventures Await in August

We're kicking off a new month filled with exciting opportunities for Girl Scouts and volunteers to explore, learn, and lead! Whether you're interested in outdoor camp skills, shoreline adventures, horse programs, STEM exploration, leadership sleepovers, community service events, canoe and kayak safety trainings, or archery certification, there are plenty of ways to build confidence, discover new interests, and make meaningful memories.

Registration is now open for a wide variety of programs and events. Secure your spot early and start planning your next Girl Scout adventure today!

Visit the GSGCF website for the latest updates, registration opportunities, and ways to make the most of your Girl Scout journey this summer.
